Description: On June 8th, 1891 the Professor Edward Graham Daves of the Maryland Historical Society proposed the erection of a monument to the Maryland soldiers who fought at the Battle of Guilford Courthouse. The monument was planned by the Maryland Historical Society and was dedicated in October of 1892. It stands in the Guilford Courthouse National Military Park with many other monuments. The monument is a rough cube of Maryland granite with two bronze tablets: one bearing the Maryland Coat of Arms and the other an inscription to the Maryland soldiers who fought on the battlefield in Guilford during the Battle of Guilford Courthouse.
