Philadelphia July 3. 1776

Had a Declaration of Independency been made Seven Months ago, it would have been attended with many great and glorious Effects. — We might before this Hour, have formed Alliances with foreign States. — We should have mastered Quebec and been in Possession of Canada! — You will perhaps wonder, how such a Declaration would have influenced our Affairs, in Canada, but if I could write with Freedom I could easily convince you, that it would, and explain to you the manner how. — Many Gentlemen in high Stations and of great Influence have been duped, by the ministerial Bubble of Commiserications to treat, — and in real sincere Expectation of this <sup>Event</sup> ~~Effect~~, which they so fully wished, they have been slow and languid, in promoting Measures for the Reduction of that Province. Others there <sup>in the Colonies</sup> are, who really wished that our Enterprise in Canada would be defeated, that the Colonies might be brought into Danger and Distress between two Fires, and be thus induced to submit. — Others, really wished to defeat the Expedition to Canada, lest the Congress if it, should elevate the Minds of the People too much to hasten to those Terms of Pacification which they believed would be offered us. These jarring Views <sup>wishes</sup> and Designs, occasioned an opposition to many salutary Measures, which were proposed for the Support of that Expedition, and caused Obstructions, Embarrassments and ~~stupid~~ Delays, which have finally, lost us the Province.

all these Camps however in Conjunction would not have disappointed us, if it had not been for a misfortune, which could not be foreseen, and perhaps could not have been prevented, I mean the Prevalence of the Small Pox among our Troops. a a This fatal Pestilence, compensated our Deficiency. ~ It is a Token of Providence upon us, which we ought to lay to heart. ~

But on the other Hand, the Delay of this Declaration to this Time, has many great Advantages attending it. ~ The Hopes of Reconciliation, which were fondly entertained by Multitudes of honest and well meaning the weak and mistaken People, have been gradually and at last totally extinguished. ~ Time has been given for the whole People, maturely to consider, the great Question of Independence and to open their Judgment, dissipate their Fears and allure their Hopes, by displaying it in News Papers and Pamphlets, by debating it, in assemblies Conventions, Committees of Safety and Inspection in Town and County Meetings, as well as in private Conversations, so that the whole People in every Colony of the 13 have now adopted it, as their own Act. ~ This will cement the Union, and avoid those Fears and perhaps Convolutions which might have been occasioned, by such a Declaration Six Months ago. ~

But the Day is past. ~ The Second Day of July 1776, will be the most memorable Epoch, in the History of America. ~

I am apt to believe that it will be celebrated by succeeding Generations, as the great anniversary Festival. It ought to be commemorated, as the Day of Deliverance by solemn Acts of Devotion to God Almighty. It ought to be solemnized with Pomp and Parade with Shows, Games, Sports, Guns, Bells, Bonfires and Illuminations from one End of this Continent to the other from this Time forward forever more.

You will think me transported with Enthusiasm but I am not — I am well aware of the Toil and Blood and Treasure, that it will cost Us to maintain this Declaration, and support and defend these States. — Yet through all the Gloom I can see the Rays of rising Light and Glory. I can see that the End is more than worth all the Means. And that Posterity will triumph in that Days Transactions, even although we should see it, which I trust in God we shall not. —
