Description: Standing twenty-one feet high, this monument is an obelisk of Tennessee marble erected by Captain A. B. Thrash, commander of Company 1, 25th Regiment of North Carolina Volunteers. Thrash had the monument erected to the memory of the Confederate company he commanded and of those who lie buried in the cemetery near the monument. The names of those who joined up with Company 1 were inscribed on the monument. According to the 1907 volume of the Confederate Veteran, the image above includes survivors from Company 1.

Nickname: Thrash's Monument

Dedication date: 1903

Creator: GW Sellers & Son, Unspecified

Materials & Techniques: Tennessee marble

Sponsor: Captain A. B. Thrash and private subscriptions

Subject notes: This monument is reportedly Buncombe County's first Confederate Monument. At the time of the 1907 and 1909 articles in the Confederate Veteran, the monument was reported to be located in the center of the cemetery of a small brick church, the M. E. Church South, located on a hill near town.

Location: The monument is located in the cemetery on a hilltop near the unincorporated town of Candler.
