A Mountain View in Maggie Valley, North Carolina

This is a mountain view in Maggie Valley, North Carolina. Located in the Blue Ridge area of North Carolina, Maggie Valley is a popular spot for tourists in Haywood County. It is the home of Wheels Through Time, a museum of American cars and motorcycles; Ghost Town in the Sky, a wild-west theme park; and Cataloochee Ski Area, the longest operating ski resort in the southeast.

Maggie Valley was named after Maggie Mae Setzer Plyant (1890-1979). To find out more about Maggie and the history of the valley check out Maggie's biography, Maggie of Maggie Valley, and <https://maggievalley.org/maggie-valley-history/>.
