

A Colonial Indenture

A Colonial Indenture

This indenture from 1759 bonded Jesse Cook, aged seventeen, as an apprentice to Hezekiah Mohun, a Bertie County shipwright, until Cook's twenty-first birthday. Transcript is below.

North Carolina This Indenture made the Twentysixth day of April in the year of our Lord One Thousand Seven hundred and fifty Nine Between John Brown Esquire one of the Justices of the County Court of Bertie and his Successors of the one Part And Hephiah Mohun of the same County and Province of the other Part Witnesseth that the said John Brown by Virtue of the Power and Authority in him (by Law) Vested Adopted and Bind unto the said Hephiah Mohun as an Apprentice Jesse Cook Orphan or Minor of Samuel Cook Deed about the age of Seventeen years; The said Jesse Cook with the said Hephiah Mohun to live untill he shall accomplish the age of Twenty One year: during all which Term or time the said Jesse Cook his said Master he shall faithfully serve and all his Lawfull Commands everywhere Gladly Obey.
Neither shall he the said Jesse Cook frequent Publick Houses, Contract Matrimony or Commit Fornication during the said Term. And the said Hephiah Mohun doth Covenant Promise and agree to and with the said John Brown and his Successors that he will Teach or Cause to be Taught and Instructed the said Jesse Cook in the art and Mystery of a Shipwright in the Best manner that he can; And also that he will find and Provide for the said Jesse Cook, Sufficient Meat Drink apparel Washing and Lodging in Sickness and in health for and during the said Term; And the said Hephiah Mohun doth further Covenant and Oblige himself to Cause the said Jesse Cook to be Taught to Read and Write; and also at the expiration of the said Term Pay to the said Apprentice what the Law in that Case doth allow. In Testimony whereof the Parties to these presents have hereunto Interchangeably Set their hands and Seals the day and year first above Written.

Scaled and Delivered in presence of

John Brown

D. Raper

Benj. Wynn

Hephiah Mohun

Style):

Wynns, Benjamin. Indenture Contract. 1759. Bertie County, NC, County Records, North Carolina State Archives (CR.010.101.7).

Read the related article:

Land Ownership and Labor in Carolina Primary Source: Jesse Cook's Orphan Apprenticeship

Transcript:

This Indenture made the Twenty-Seventh day of April in the year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Fifty Nine between John Brown Esquire one of the Justices of the County Court of Bertie and his Successors of the one Part and Hezekiah Mohun of the same County and Province Ship Wright of the other Part. Witnesseth that the said John Brown by Virtue of the Power and Authority in him (by Law) vested do Put and Bind unto the said Hezekiah Mohun as an Apprentice Jesse Cook Orphan (or Minor) of Samuel Cook Decd. [deceased] about the age of Seventeen years; The said Jesse Cook, with the said Hezekiah Mohun to Live untill he shall Accomplish the age of Twenty One years: during all which Term or Time the said Jesse Cook his said Master he shall faithfully Serve and all his lawful Commands everywhere Gladly Obey. Neither shall the said Jesse Cook frequent Publick Houses, Contract Matrimony or Commit Fornication during the said Term. And the said Hezekiah Mohun doth Covenant Promise and Agree to and with the said John Brown and his Successors that he will Teach or Cause to be Taught and Instructed the said Jesse Cook in the art and Mistery of a Ship Wright in the Best Manner that he Can, And also that he will find and Provide for the said Jesse Cook, Sufficient Meat Drink apparrel Washing and Lodging in Sickness and in health for and during the said Term; And the said Hezekiah Mohun doth further Covenant and Oblige himself to Cause the said Jesse Cook to be Taught to Read and Write; And also at the Expiration of the said Term Pay to the said Apprentice what the Law in that Case doth allow. In Testimony whereof the Parties to these presents have hereunto Set their hands and Seals the day and year first above Written. Sealed and Delivered in Presence of John Brown.

Usage Statement:

Public Domain

Public Domain is a copyright term that is often used when talking about copyright for creative works. Under U.S. copyright law, individual items that are in the public domain are items that are no longer protected by copyright law. This means that you do not need to request permission to re-use, re-publish or even change a copy of the item. Items enter the public domain under U.S. copyright law for a number of reasons: the original copyright may have expired; the item was created by the U.S. Federal Government or other governmental entity that views the things it creates as in the public domain; the work was never protected by copyright for some other reason related to how it was produced (for example, it was a speech that wasn't written down or recorded); or the work doesn't have enough originality to make it eligible for copyright protection.

Source URL: <https://ncpedia.org/media/colonial-indenture>