Hanuman flies carrying Ravana's soul container and golden bow (Thai Ramayana mural)

Hanuman flies back to Rama carrying Ravana's soul container, as depicted on a mural at the Emerald Buddha Temple. Moving horizontally through the air to the left, a grinning Hanuman dressed in Siamese royal clothes holds the small wooden cylinder with conical metal ends in his right hand.
