

cooperative learning ^[1]

Type of Speech:

noun ^[2]

Definition:

Instructional method in which students work together in small, heterogeneous groups to complete a problem, project, or other instructional goal, while teachers act as guides or facilitators. This method works to reinforce a student's own learning as well as the learning of his or her fellow group members.

Source URL: <https://ncpedia.org/glossary/cooperative-learning>

Links

[1] <https://ncpedia.org/glossary/cooperative-learning> [2] <https://ncpedia.org/category/parts-speech/noun>