

estuary ^[1]

Type of Speech:

noun ^[2]

Definition:

A partially enclosed coastal body of water having an open connection with the ocean, where freshwater from inland areas is mixed with saltwater from the sea; also the part of the wide lower course of a river where its current is met by the tides, or an arm of the sea that extends inland to meet the mouth of a river.

Source URL: <https://ncpedia.org/glossary/estuary>

Links

[1] <https://ncpedia.org/glossary/estuary> [2] <https://ncpedia.org/category/parts-speech/noun>