

jet stream ^[1]

Type of Speech:

noun ^[2]

Definition:

A high-speed wind current in the earth's upper troposphere -- the lowest layer of the atmosphere at six to twelve miles high. The current typically moves in a meandering path at speeds over 250 miles per hour, at about 30,000 to 40,000 feet above the earth's surface.

Source URL: <https://ncpedia.org/glossary/jet-stream>

Links

[1] <https://ncpedia.org/glossary/jet-stream> [2] <https://ncpedia.org/category/parts-speech/noun>