

turpentine^[1]

Type of Speech:

noun^[2]

Definition:

a thin volatile essential oil obtained by steam distillation or other means from the wood or exudates (material that has oozed out) of certain pine trees and used as a paint thinner, solvent, and medicinally as a liniment.

Source URL: <https://ncpedia.org/glossary/turpentine>

Links

[1] <https://ncpedia.org/glossary/turpentine> [2] <https://ncpedia.org/category/parts-speech/noun>