Raleigh was more than 325,000 in 2005, making it North Carolina's third-largest city. In addition to hosting major college sporting events and touring shows, Raleigh's RBC Center is home to the Carolina Hurricanes, sponsor of the National Hockey League (1994). Raleigh's population was more than 325,000 in 2005, making it North Carolina's third-largest city.

Additional Resources:
- Search results for Raleigh > Raleigh (Wake County, N.C.): North Carolina Digital Collections, NC Department of Cultural Resources
- Search results for Raleigh History Collection: North Carolina Digital Collections, NC Department of Cultural Resources

Image Credit:
"Elevated view of Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, NC, looking south showing the main business district, 1913." From Carolina Power and Light (CP&L) Photograph Collection (Ph.C.68), North Carolina State Archives; call #: PhC68_1_90.

References: